- The background of the page features a large, semi-circular seal of the Quapaw Nation. The seal is divided into four quadrants: top-left (blue), top-right (red), bottom-left (green), and bottom-right (yellow). In the center of the seal is a white silhouette of a person on a horse, holding a bow and arrow. The words "QUAPAW NATION" are written in a large, white, serif font across the top of the seal, and "1821" is written in a similar font across the bottom. The seal is partially obscured by the text of the agenda items.
